Chat Interface Improvements

2021-07-26 - Michael B - Announcements

We are proud to announce that we have rolled out a new chat interface and widget for users to utilize for any issues that may arise.

On a majority of pages on our site, including our main page, you will see a green lock in the bottom right-hand corner of the page. Please enter your name after clicking the widget and an agent will be along to assist you shortly. We are happy to provide all new a prospective users with the opportunity to ask questions and seek assistance from our wonderful support staff!
