Holiday Chat Hours

2021-12-23 - Michael B - Announcements

In order to allow our teams to celebrate the holiday season and spend time with their loved ones, we will not be offering chat support on December 24 to December 25 or December 31 through January 1. We appreciate your understanding, and as we move into a new year, we want to wish all of our subscribers and those of you who are not yet subscribed, a wonderful holiday season and a happy new year.

In an effort to ensure your needs are still met, we will be offering ticket support. If you are need of assistance, please submit your inquiry here with as much information as possible.
